

FEATURES

10 LITTLE WAR OF McCULLOCH
*This pluck Revenue Cutter would fight with Dewey in the Philippines and then go on to a long and successful career before being rammed and sunk / by Dennis L. Noble

18 BRITAIN'S "GRAND OLD LADY"
*This historic Royal Navy battleship would fight in two world wars, be slated for preservation, but would come to a bad end / by James Huffstodt

30 BALLIN'S BLUE RIBAND HEROES
*The German super-liners would go on to set records — yet they would be flying the flags of Germany's sworn enemy / by David Reed

38 DEADLY SAGA OF CONVOY SC-118
*Surrounded by U-Boats, this important Allied convoy fought its way through the perilous waters of the North Atlantic fairly unscathed — until one U-Boat Ace came along / by James Waters

DEPARTMENTS

4 SEA MAIL
News and views from the readers of Sea Classics

6 INTEL FILE
*The sad anniversary of USS Pueblo / Staff Report

34 YOUR NAVY
*The greatest current photos of the USN in action taken by the best USN photojournalists / by Howard Carter

COVER: Britain's "Grand Old Lady" — HMS Warspite was not only a hero of the Great War, but also of World War Two. Set aside for preservation, the historic ship would instead meet an unfortunate end

THIS PAGE: USS Theodore Roosevelt (CVN-71) transits alongside the dry cargo and ammunition ship USNS Alan Shepard (T-AKE-3) during a replenishment-at-sea in the Arabian Gulf on 15 February. (USN/Anthony Rivera)

